

REMUNERATION POLICY
OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF SHELLY GROUP SE

in force as of 28.06.2021

[last amended as of 29.06.2026]

This Remuneration Policy of the Members of the Board of Directors of Shelly Group SE has been developed by the Board of Directors in accordance with the requirements of ORDINANCE № 48, issued by the Financial Supervision Commission on March 20, 2013, last amended. and ext. Official Journal no. 39 of April 28, 2026, on the requirements for remuneration, taking into account the recommendations of the National Code of Corporate Governance.

This document is translated from Bulgarian and provided for information purposes. In case of discrepancies between the version in Bulgarian and in English, the Bulgarian version shall prevail.

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1. (1) This Remuneration Policy (the “Remuneration Policy”) governs the rules for the determination and payment of fixed and variable remuneration to the member of the Board of Directors of the Shelly Group SE (former company name “Allterco”) (“Company”).

(2) The Remuneration Policy, as well as any amendments and/or supplement or revision thereof, shall be developed by the Board of Directors of the Company and adopted by the Company by a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, by including a separate item in the agenda announced in the invitation for its convocation. A description and explanation of the significant changes and the way in which the results of the General Meeting votes were taken into account, the opinions of the shareholders and the minutes of the General Meetings at which the Remuneration policy was considered and voted are reflected in Appendix 1 to this Policy, an integral part thereto.

Art. 2. (1) This Remuneration Policy aims to:

1. establishing objective criteria for determining the remuneration of the corporate management;
2. attracting and retaining qualified and loyal members of the Board of Directors and motivating them to work in the interest of the company and the shareholders while avoiding potential and real conflicts of interest;
3. achieving the business goals of the Company by further stimulating the members of the Board of Directors and linking these goals with the results achieved by them;
4. ensuring better cost planning;
5. encouraging management to achieve long-term corporate goals such as sustainable development, strategic planning and investment management;

(2) The Remuneration policy establishes rules and principles that reflect the specifics of the Company's activity and its management.

Art. 3. The Company implements the Remuneration Policy in accordance with the regulatory requirements for public companies, the goals, long-term interests and strategies for future development of the Company, as well as its financial and economic situation in the context of national and European economic conditions, taking into account the recommendations of the National Corporate Governance Code.

Art. 4. [\[proposed amendment\]](#) The Company shall disclose the Remuneration Policy and any subsequent change in it in a clear and accessible manner, by publishing it on the Company's website. The adopted Remuneration Policy with the date of its adoption and the date of its entry into force and the results of the voting at the General Meeting is published on the Company's website and is available free of charge while it is in force.

Art. 5. The Company shall disclose to its Shareholders the manner in which it applies the Remuneration Policy in a report, which is a separate document to the Annual financial reports of the Company, which is also published on its website. The registered auditor, who performs an independent financial audit of the Annual financial reports of the Company is obliged to express an opinion on whether a report on the implementation of the Remuneration policy has been submitted and whether the report meets the legal requirements in the audit report.

Art. 6. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the implementation of the Remuneration policy and shall ensure that it is periodically updated by reviewing the policy regarding the remuneration of the Members of the Board of Directors.

Art. 7. When preparing and implementing the Remuneration Policy, the Board of Directors shall ensure that the remuneration of each of its members is fairly determined in relation to the remuneration of the other members and other employees in management positions in the administration of the Company, as well as the functions performed by the respective person in the management of the Company, his/her responsibilities, qualifications, professional experience and place of work. The structure and types of remunerations under the Remuneration Policy shall not encourage the granting of unreasonably high or unusual as types remuneration to the members of the management body, taking into account the characteristics of the functions they perform, their responsibilities, their contribution to the development of the Company, their professional experience and competitive remuneration in the relevant labor market, including in relation to the Company's senior and middle management and expert employees. The type and the amounts of the specific remunerations of the members of the Board of the Directors shall be determined by and in accordance with the resolutions of the General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Company.

Art. 8. The Remuneration Policy shall be reviewed, amended and/or supplemented at least once every 4 years as well as when substantial changes and/or additions to it are necessary or it is necessary to achieve the objectives set out in Article 2 of this Policy.

Art. 9. Where the proposed amendments and/or supplements to the current Remuneration Policy are not adopted by the General meeting, the Company shall continue to pay remuneration to the Members of the Board of Directors in accordance with the policy in force at the time the relevant amendments and/or supplements are proposed. In such case, the Board of Directors is required to present revised amendments and/or supplements to the Remuneration Policy for adoption at the next General Meeting.

II. REMUNERATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1 GENERAL CONDITIONS

Art. 10. The Company may pay to the members of the Board of Directors fixed and variable remuneration.

Art. 11. (1) Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to receive fixed and variable remuneration, both from the Company and from subsidiaries in the Company' group in which they perform functions under an employment or equivalent to such a relationship.

(2) Members of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to all material incentives applicable to all employees in the Company and in the respective subsidiary, in which they perform additional functions under an employment agreement or an equivalent legal relationship (including management contracts), as well as to all social benefits received by the employees of these subsidiaries, and such as are necessary for the performance of their official duties.

(3) An executive member of the Board of Directors may receive a fixed gross monthly remuneration from subsidiaries in the Company's group in which they perform functions under an employment or equivalent relationship (including management contracts) up to a total of EUR 50,000 per year.

Art. 12. When Members of the Board of Directors receive remuneration under employment or an equivalent legal relationship (including management contracts) in subsidiaries of the Company's group, in order to ensure full and reliable disclosure of the remuneration they receive, and for the purposes of avoiding conflicts of interest and ensuring their loyalty to the Company, the remuneration received or payable not only by the Company but also by any other company in its group shall be disclosed in the Policy Performance Report.

SECTION 2 PAYMENT OF THE FIXED REMUNERATION

Art. 13. (1) The Company shall pay to the Members of the Board of Directors a fixed remuneration, the specific amount of which shall be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company and shall take into account:

1. the obligations, the degree of workload, commitment and loyalty of the members of the Board of Directors in the management of the Company;
2. the possibility for election and retention of qualified and loyal Members of the Board of Directors, including such with proven previous international professional experience;
3. the presence of compliance of the interests of the Members of the Board of Directors and the long-term interests of the Company;
4. the market rates of remuneration for the relevant position in comparable companies in local and international labour market, taking into account the place of work of the relevant Member of the Board of Directors;

This document is translated from Bulgarian and provided for information purposes. In case of discrepancies between the version in Bulgarian and in English, the Bulgarian version shall prevail.

5. the expected contribution of each Member of the Board of Directors to the international development of the Company, based on their qualification, professional experience and field of expertise;
- (2) The fixed remuneration is not bound by the achievement of certain results.
- (3) The amount of the fixed remuneration is in compliance with:
1. the main activity of the Company and the revenues from it, taking into account that as a holding within the meaning of Art. 277 and Art. 278 of the Commercial Act, the Company does not carry out its own production or commercial activity, but forms its revenue mainly from dividends and management fees from the subsidiaries managed by it;
 2. the international element of the Company's development, aimed at sustainable development through the introducing of international business practices and attracting foreign investors for the purpose of better positioning of the Company's shares on the German capital market.

Art. 14. (1) The fixed remuneration may include both a fixed monthly remuneration and a fixed additional remuneration related to the specific position held in the Board of Directors. The fixed additional remuneration may not exceed the fixed monthly remuneration. In view of the financial and economic situation of the Company, as well as considering the specific commitment of each of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, until the adoption of a new Resolution by the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company, the following maximum permitted fixed remuneration are set:

- For executive Member of the Board of Directors
 - [\[proposed amendment\]](#) the gross monthly remuneration may not exceed the amount of EUR 30 000;
- For non-executive Member of the Board of Directors
 - the gross monthly remuneration may not exceed the amount of EUR 10 000;
 - the gross additional monthly remuneration for participation in a regular (attendance) meeting of the Board of Directors may not exceed the amount of EUR 2 000.

(2) The type and the amount of the fixed remuneration for each Member of the Board of Directors shall be determined individually by the General Meeting of Shareholders within the limits set out in this Remuneration Policy. The amount of the fixed remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors is subject to periodic revision by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

(3) The fixed remuneration thus determined represents a sufficiently large part of the total remuneration of each of the Members of the Board of Directors, to allow the Company to apply a flexible policy on variable remuneration, including the possibility of not paying such remuneration where performance criteria are not met and where there is a significant deterioration in the Company's financial occurs.

Art. 15. The disclosure of information about the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors is carried out in accordance with the regulatory requirements and good practices for corporate governance.

SECTION 3 GRANTING AND PAYMENT OF VARIABLE REMUNERATION

This document is translated from Bulgarian and provided for information purposes. In case of discrepancies between the version in Bulgarian and in English, the Bulgarian version shall prevail.

Variable remuneration in shares

Art. 16. (1) The Company may pay to the executive members of the Board of Directors variable remuneration in shares in order to directly engage the management in achieving the long-term corporate goals of the Company.

(2) Variable remuneration in shares is not provided for non-executive members of the Board of Directors.

(3) Throughout this Policy, the phrase "granting of" remuneration in shares shall be construed to mean the grant of an option to acquire existing shares or to subscribe for new shares, as the case may be, subject to the particular manner of their provision and statutory requirements and restrictions.

(4) The Variable remuneration in shares is bound by performance and long-term value creation for the Company.

Art. 17. The share-based remunerations, including when granted as options for acquiring of existing shares or subscription rights for new shares, the criteria for the receipt of this remuneration, respectively for the exercise of the granted options and the amount of the variable remuneration, which can be paid if the conditions of the granted options are met and the options are exercised, shall be determined on the basis of the Scheme for granting of remuneration in shares approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Art. 18. (1) The variable remuneration in shares is related to the fulfilment of objective and measurable financial and non-financial criteria, which promote the stability of the Company and the development of its activities in the long run.

(2) [\[proposed amendment\]](#) The criteria related to financial indicators are selected in accordance with how they reflect the creation of value by the Company, maintaining financial stability and the ability to generate positive results and achieve sustainable development in accordance with the business objectives and long-term interests of the Company. Financial indicators may include, but are not limited to, some of the following criteria:

1. [\[proposed amendment\]](#) consolidated profit before taxes and interest (EBIT) - this indicator reflects the operating profitability of the Company and its group, irrespective of the capital structure and the tax environment, and provides a measurable criterion for assessing the operating performance and the success of the applied business model. Setting specific target values links the remuneration to the sustainable generation of cash flows from the core activity, which is a prerequisite for reinvestment, servicing of liabilities and financing of the long-term development of the group;
2. [\[proposed amendment\]](#) consolidated sales profit (gross profit)- this indicator measures the operating efficiency and the ability of the Company and its group to apply a successful pricing policy, to exercise control over direct costs and to maintain a competitive market position. Linking the remuneration to it encourages focus on the quality of the profit from the core business, which supports long-term sustainability;
3. [\[proposed amendment\]](#) consolidated revenues - this indicator reflects the scale of the activity of the Company and its group; setting this indicator with appropriate values provides a measurable criterion for market demand, the effectiveness of the commercial strategy and market positioning. Setting this indicator links the remuneration to the growth of the business and the expansion of market share, which is of key importance for the long-term competitiveness and strategic development of the group;

4. [proposed amendment] share price and market capitalization of the Company - this indicator reflects the assessment and expectations of investors and, all other things being equal, is a measure of the performance of the Company and its group. Linking the remuneration to this indicator encourages alignment between the interests of management and those of shareholders and stimulates decisions that create long-term value for investors;
5. [proposed amendment] cash conversion cycle – this indicator measures the time in days in which the Company and its group convert investments in inventories and trade receivables into realised cash receipts, taking into account inventory turnover, the collection of receivables and the period of trade credit used from suppliers. Setting target values links the remuneration to the effective management of working capital and the shortening of the financial cycle, which improves the free cash flow and strengthens the financial sustainability of the group
6. [previous 5] others at the discretion of the Company.

(3) [proposed amendment] The non-financial criteria shall be selected in accordance with the strategy of the Company for sustainable development and its long-term and short-term goals, including taking into account compliance with applicable legislation, maintaining the trust of investors and creating prerequisites for the successful development of the Company's business. Non-financial criteria may include, but are not limited to, some of the following criteria:

1. [proposed amendment] attracting strategic partners and clients - provides a basis for the future development and the achievement of the Company's business goals;;
2. [proposed amendment] achievement of strategic goals (including realization of strategic projects/transactions) – demonstrates the extent to which the Company successfully implements its long-term strategy and vision for development, reflects the effectiveness of management and the ability to execute on priorities;
3. [proposed amendment] observance of certain rules and procedures by management - the introduction of this criterion is intended to enable assessment of the effectiveness of the organisation, of control and of transparency in management, which provides a basis for the sustainable development of the Company and its group;
4. stable and sustainable development of the Company and the Group in economic and social aspect;
5. [proposed amendment] time served of service in the Company and the Group— setting this criterion is intended to ensure the stability of the organisation and the sustainable development of the group;
6. [proposed amendment] development and optimization of the Company and its group of companies' activities - reflects the ability to adapt the business and to provide a basis for its sustainable development;
7. [proposed amendment] providing external financing including by issuing shares or debt—provides a resource for future growth;
8. others at the discretion of the Company.

This document is translated from Bulgarian and provided for information purposes. In case of discrepancies between the version in Bulgarian and in English, the Bulgarian version shall prevail.

(4) The assessment regarding the implementation of the financial criteria shall be carried out in accordance with the variable remuneration scheme adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, as follows:

1. [proposed amendment] The indicators under Art. 18, para. 2, items 1-3 are quantitatively measurable and shall be assessed through analysis and comparison of the planned with the actually achieved results on the basis of an annual consolidated financial report of the Company for the relevant periods, certified by a registered auditor and adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, for which an assessment of compliance with certain performance criteria shall be made;
2. [proposed amendment] The indicators under Art. 18, para. 2, point 4 are quantitatively measurable and shall be assessed through analysis and comparison of the target and the actually reported data on the basis of data on the share price / capitalization of the Company for a certain period, according to the statistics of the Bulgarian Stock Exchange and/or other regulated market on which the Company's shares are admitted to trading.
3. [proposed amendment] The indicator under Art. 18, para. 2, item 5 is quantitatively measurable and is assessed through analysis based on the annual consolidated financial statements of the Company and activity reports for the relevant periods, certified by a registered auditor and adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, application of the formula for calculating the value of the indicator set out in the scheme approved by the General Meeting and comparison of the set with the actually achieved results;
4. With regard to the achievement of other financial indicators, the General Meeting shall also establish the criteria for their evaluation.

(5) [proposed amendment] The assessment regarding the implementation of the non-financial indicators for the achieved results shall be carried out in accordance with the variable remuneration scheme adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders on the basis of the consolidated report on the activity of the Company and the supplements thereto, as well as on the base of other publicly available relevant information, taking into account, analysing and evaluating the events that have occurred and that correspond to the relevant indicator.

Art. 19. (1) The Board of Directors shall propose for approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders a Scheme for remunerations, which shall determine the amount of the variable remunerations, the options conditions and the criteria for the exercise of the options granted as remuneration, including by specifying their values.

(2) The Board of Directors shall propose for voting by the General Meeting the provision to the executive board members of remuneration in shares for the past reporting period, according to the scheme for granting of remuneration in shares approved by the General Meeting.

Art. 20. (1) The resolution to grant the executive members of the Board of Directors remuneration in shares shall be taken by the General Meeting of Shareholders, and the approval shall have as a subject a specific scheme for granting of remuneration in shares.

(2) In the resolution for granting remuneration in shares the General Meeting of Shareholders shall determine:

1. full description of the scheme for granting remuneration on the basis of shares of the Company and the names of the persons, who will participate in it, as well as its implementation within the framework of the Remuneration policy;

This document is translated from Bulgarian and provided for information purposes. In case of discrepancies between the version in Bulgarian and in English, the Bulgarian version shall prevail.

2. the manner in which the Company will provide the shares, which it will provide to the executive members of the Board of Directors by explicitly indicating whether the Company will buy them, whether it owns them, or will issue new shares;
3. review of the expenses of the Company for the granting of remunerations on the basis of shares.

(3) When, in view of the financial situation of the Company the payment of the variable remuneration in shares may endanger the stability of the Company or where there are objective obstacles to the payment of the variable remuneration in shares, or where according to the market conditions the payment of the variable remuneration may result in unreasonably high costs or substantial difficulties for the Company, at any time up to the date of transfer of ownership of the shares or the date of exercising the options or the rights to subscribe for shares, as the case may be, the General Meeting may resolve that the payment of the variable remuneration in shares shall be deferred for a specified period, determined in view of the Company's financial situation or to pay it as a cash value calculated according to a methodology set out in the variable remuneration scheme or in a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Art. 21. (1) The granting of remuneration in shares is made by granting options to acquire existing shares or rights to subscribe for new shares. The option may be exercised at the earliest three years after the date on which the General Meeting of Shareholders resolves on the grant, subject to the conditions set out therein.

(2) All expenses for acquisition of the shares by the executive members of the Board of Directors, including all expenses (acquisition price, fees and commissions) in connection with the exercise option shall be at Company's expense.

(3) When the option confers rights to subscribe for shares, the General Meeting of Shareholders may determine the subscription at a price lower than the market price of the shares at the date of determination but not lower than the nominal value of the shares subject to subscription.

Art. 22. (1) Except as otherwise set forth in this Policy, the payment of remuneration in shares upon the fulfilment of the criteria established at the time when it was granted for the exercise of the options and the rights thereunder, represents remunerations for achieved result over a specified period and , the current Remuneration policy does not provide the possibility to reclaim or adjust remuneration in shares, which was already paid.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply where it is established, or there are reasonable grounds for suspecting, that the variable remuneration has been paid or the rights of the granted as remuneration options or rights have been exercised on the basis of data which have subsequently proved to be erroneous or misleading. In such a case, the Executive Director in respect of whom the fact has been established must repay all or part of the variable remuneration paid. The decision on the repayment of variable remuneration shall be taken by the General Meeting of Shareholders, which shall determine the conditions, including the amount and the time limit for repayment, if not laid down in the contract.

Art. 23. (1) In case of "good leaving" of an Executive Director, he may receive the shares subject to the variable remuneration and accordingly exercise the options or rights to subscribe for new shares if, prior to his leaving, the conditions for doing so have been fulfilled in accordance with the specific scheme pursuant to which they were or may be granted to him and within the time limits provided therein. The actual transfer of the ownership of the shares or the exercise of the option or rights to subscribe for Shares, as the case may be, may be effected before the expiry of the period prescribed in the scheme only by a resolution of the General Meeting. In no circumstances shall a director be entitled to variable remuneration or its equivalent based on the satisfaction of criteria that have occurred after the date of his leaving.

(2) A “good leaving” within the meaning of the preceding paragraph shall be any cessation of the powers of an executive director arising from circumstances beyond his control, namely: expiry and non-renewal of the term of office, cessation of executive functions, early dismissal pursuant to a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders (except for voluntary early resignation, default or other culpable conduct on the part of the director concerned), retirement, total and permanent disability, death, transfer of business in the ordinary course of business.

(3) In all other cases, except as provided in paragraph (2) hereinabove, there shall be a “bad leaving” of the director and the director shall not be entitled to variable remuneration in shares, and any options or rights granted to subscribe for shares shall be invalidated.

Annual variable cash remuneration

Art. 24. (1) The Company may pay the executive members of the Board of Directors an annual variable cash bonus ("Annual Bonus").

(2) [\[proposed amendment\]](#) The Annual Bonus is linked to the financial performance of the Company on an annual consolidated basis and to the achievement of one or more non-financial performance criteria to be determined by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, with the corresponding application of Art. 18, para. 2 and 3.

(3) [\[proposed amendment\]](#) The degree of achievement of the financial and non-financial performance criteria is reported on a consolidated basis as of December 31 of the year for which performance is assessed (the "Performance Year"), according to the Annual Consolidated Financial Statements audited and adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, whereby for the non-financial criteria, if applicable, other publicly available information may also be used with the corresponding application of Art. 18, para. 4 and 5.

Art. 25. The decision to grant the Executive Members of the Board of Directors an Annual Bonus shall be made by the General Meeting of Shareholders, which shall determine the maximum amount of the Annual Bonus and the conditions (type and degree of financial and non-financial criteria achieved, rules for determining the specific amount of the Annual Bonus according to the achievement of the specified criteria, period for which it is granted and the terms of payment) under which the Annual Bonus will be payable.

Art. 26. (1) The Annual Bonus shall be paid in the amount as per the terms and conditions adopted by the General Meeting based on the degree of achievement of financial criteria and non-financial criteria.

(2) If the non-financial criteria are not met, the Annual Bonus may be paid in a reduced amount in accordance with the terms of the Annual Bonus adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders, or in accordance with an express resolution of the General Meeting where no such terms are provided.

(3) [\[proposed amendment\]](#) The Annual Bonus shall be paid upon resolution of the Board of Directors which assesses the achievement of the financial and non-financial criteria set for the payment of the bonus in accordance with Art. 24, para. 3, determines whether it is due and its amount in accordance with the terms and conditions adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders and only after the General Meeting of Shareholders has adopted the Company's annual consolidated financial report for the Performance Year.

(4) In the event that adjusted (in relation to the audited accounts) values of the financial criteria are to be used to determine the amount of the Annual Bonus, the General Meeting shall decide on the applicability of the Annual Bonus and determine its amount. The Board of Directors shall include in the agenda of the Annual General Meeting an item for decision pursuant to the preceding sentence on the basis of a report on the adjusted results.

Art. 27. (1) In view of the relative weight of the Annual Bonus to the fixed remuneration of the executive members of the Board of Directors, the payment of 40% of the Annual Bonus shall be deferred over a period of not less than 3 years.

(2) Payment of the deferred portion of the Annual Bonus may be made pro rata or by gradual increase during the deferral period, in accordance with the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders for payment of the Annual Bonus.

(3) In the event of termination of a management agreement with an Executive Member of the Board of Directors, where such termination is not related to his default or other culpable conduct, the deferred portion of the Annual Bonus for the Performance Year completed as of the date of termination that is unpaid as of the date of termination shall be payable in full in the amount which has been determined in accordance with Article 26 (before or after the termination), unless otherwise determined by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders or under the management agreement.

Art. 28. (1) The payment of variable remuneration by any subsidiary within the group as referred to in the preceding paragraph shall not exclude the right of an Executive Director to receive an Annual Bonus or other variable remuneration from the Company to the extent that such has been granted by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, unless such exclusion is expressly provided for in the grant of the relevant remuneration..

(2) [\[proposed amendment\]](#) Where an executive member of the Board of Directors receives variable remuneration from subsidiaries in the Company's group in connection with the functions which this executive member performs in those subsidiaries under an employment or equivalent agreement (including a management agreement), the maximum total amount of all variable cash remunerations, including the Annual Bonus, which that member may receive, shall not exceed the gross amount of EUR 360,000 per year.

Art. 29. The Company may grant and pay an Annual Bonus regardless of and in addition to the grant and payment of the Variable remuneration in shares.

Art. 30. The Company may also pay an Annual Bonus to non-executive members of the Board of Directors upon a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders and upon the respective application of the rules under Articles 24 to 28 hereof.

III. AGREEMENTS WITH THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Art. 31. [\[proposed amendment\]](#) The remunerations and the relations between the Company and the Members of the Board of Directors, including the executive directors shall be governed by a contract for assignment of management or employment contract, which shall be concluded in writing on behalf of the Company by the Company's representative or by a person authorized by the General meeting of shareholders. The term of the concluded contracts shall correspond to the duration of the term of office of each of the members of the Board of Directors and may not be longer than 5 years. A contract with a member of the Board of Directors may be terminated prematurely upon the release of the member of the Board by resolution of the General Meeting before the expiry of his/her term of office or upon the deletion of the member of the Board of Directors from the Commercial Register at his/her request, as provided for in the applicable legislation.

Art. 32. (1) The members of the Boards shall be obliged within 7 days from their election to submit a management guarantee, the amount of which shall be determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders and may not be less than their 3-month remuneration. Where the General meeting has not determined the amount of the management guarantee, its amount shall be deemed to be equal to the gross remuneration of the Member for the quarter.

(2) In case of extension of the term of office of the respective member of the Board of Directors for a new period, the guarantee shall not be released, but shall remain deposited in favour of the Company for the period of the new term.

(3) In case of change of the amount of the remuneration, the guarantee shall be updated by adding the difference.

IV. CONDITIONS AND TERMINATION PAYMENT IN CASE OF TERMINATION OF THE CONTRACT WITH A MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Art. 33. Upon termination of the contract with a member of the Board of Directors of the Company, due to expiration and non-renewal of the term for which he was elected, the Company shall not be obliged to pay a termination payment.

Art. 34. (1) In the event of early termination of the contract with a Member of the Board of Directors by the Company without assigning a reason, the amount of compensation payable by the Company, in addition to the compensation payable under the law (where applicable), shall be agreed in the contract or in an agreement between the parties, provided that the maximum total amount of all compensations payable by the Company shall not exceed:

1. the total amount of gross monthly remuneration paid to him/her up to the time of termination, provided that in any event such amount may not exceed the sum of 12 times the fixed gross monthly remuneration - for an executive member of the Board of Directors;
2. three gross monthly remunerations - for a non-executive member of the Board of Directors;
3. a portion of the fixed gross monthly remuneration proportionate to the period of notice not complied with by the Company, subject to the maximum values specified in para. 1 and para. 2.

Art. 35. The termination payment under Art. 34 shall not be due in case the termination of the contract is due to unsatisfactory performance and / or default on part of the respective Director.
