The capital increase requirement with issuance of rights shall not apply in case of a capital increase that only members of the Board of Directors of the Company are entitled to (under the conditions that the remuneration policy adopted by the Company stipulates a plan for providing variable remuneration in the form of Company shares), and/or its workers or employees, and such capital increase may only be done by up to 1 percent within a calendar year, and 3 percent in successive capital increases, except in case a successful increase of the capital is achieved with the issuance of rights, wherein the registered capital has been increased by at least 10 percent; and the shares issued in this manner may at no time exceed 5 percent of the Company capital. The Statute of the Company do not provide for the right to a share of the profits, other than the dividend right described above in item 3.5 hereof.

Right to a liquidation quota

This is a conditional right – it arises and may be exercised only if (and to the extent that) in case of Company dissolution, after satisfaction of the claims of all creditors, there are residual assets for distribution among the shareholders and it is up to the size of these assets. The right belongs to the shareholders registered as such upon termination of the Company and it shall be extinguished upon expiration of the general 5-year limitation period.

It is not necessary to make a tender offering, if the acquisition of own shares is up to 3 percent within one calendar year, whereas under the Statute, share buyback shall be carried out by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders by a majority of the capital represented. The resolution shall determine the minimum and maximum number of shares subject to buyback; the conditions and the procedure, according to which the board of directors shall carry out the buyback within a period that is not longer than 60 months as of the date of the resolution; the minimum and maximum value of one share for buyback, as well as the investment intermediary through which the buyback shall be carried out.

3.6. TENDER OFFERINGS

Company shares may be the object of a mandatory or of a voluntary tender offering. Pursuant to the applicable national legislation, an obligation to make a tender offering shall occur in case of direct acquisition, acquisition through related parties (within the meaning of Article 148h of POSA) and/or acquisition/holding under Article 149 (2) of POSA (persons who have entered into an agreement for a common management policy through joint exercising of voting rights or holding of voting shares by one person at the expense of another) of more than (1) 1/3 of the votes in the general meeting of the Company (in the event that there is no person or persons holding directly or through related parties more than 50 percent of the votes in the general meeting); (2) ½ of the votes in the general meeting of the Company, or (3) 2/3 of the votes in the general meeting of the Company, unless subsequently within the time limit for making the tender offering, the liable person transfers the necessary number of shares so as to hold directly or through related parties votes under the thus surpassed threshold. The obligation shall be fulfilled within 14 days as of the acquisition (execution of the agreement or acquisition of the shares on the person's behalf), accordingly, within a one-month period as of entry in the commercial register of the transformation or reduction of the capital, when the threshold has been surpassed as a result of transformation or as a result of share cancellation. Moreover, an individual holding more than 1/3 but not more than 2/3 of the votes in the general meeting of the Company in one of the listed hypotheses, may not acquire within the course of one year a quantity of voting shares exceeding 3 percent of the total number of Company shares, unless this results from a tender offering made under Article 149b of POSA, unless the threshold is exceeded in case of capital increase with rights. At the same time, POSA provided for certain cases where the obligation to make a tender offering does not occur, despite of surpassing the threshold (mainly in relation to a prior tender offering or surpassing of the threshold as a result of a tender offering, and in case of surpassing of the threshold of 2/3 of the votes as a result of capital increase with a rights issue, if prior to the capital increase the individual held more than 50 percent of the votes in the general meeting).

Company shares may be subject to a voluntary tender offering, made by a person that has acquired directly, through related parties or indirectly in the cases under Article 149 (2) of POSA more than 90 percent of the votes in the general meeting of the Company (Article 149a of POSA) or a person holding at least 5 percent of the votes in the general meeting of the Company and wishing to acquire (directly, through related parties or indirectly) more than 1/3 of the votes in the general meeting of the Company (Article 149b of POSA).

The national legislation on tender offerings applicable to the Issuer does not contain provisions, which might impede these tender offerings. Nevertheless, it should be considered that there are specific statutory requirements concerning the principles for tender offering, the contents of the offerings and price setting, whereby tender offerings are subject to review by the Financial Supervision Commission and accordingly, their publishing may be delayed in case of inconsistency with the legal requirements or infringement of shareholder interests.

Company shares may be subject to compulsory repurchasing pursuant to Article 157a of POSA (within three months after a tender offering made to all shareholders took place, by a person who acquired at least 95 percent of the votes in the general meeting of the Company). Accordingly, pursuant to Article 157b of POSA, each minority shareholder shall be entitled to request from the person who acquired at least 95% of the Company voting shares as a result of a tender offering, to buy their shares within a period of three months of the closing of the tender offering.
